The Chinese Management Scholars' Community (CMSC) is an informal, open-platform community that offers career-related services to Chinese (or Chinese-speaking) management scholars. Our community represents a grass-roots, voluntary effort initiated by individuals who are bonded by common interests and values. We are guided by our mission, to pass the baton (傳承), and our core values derive from the “middle” or “zhong” (中) philosophy: integrity, harmony, balance, integration, dynamics, and independence. Founded in 2006 as a small “workshop” for Chinese scholars in strategic management dedicated to the development of well-balanced business academics, the group is now composed of 200-some members. Our current focus is on serving scholars in the macro management area, and we offer the following member-centered programs: 1) CMSC-Workshop; 2) CMSC-Reunion; 3) CMSC-RF (Research Forum); 4) CMSC-TF (Teaching Forum); 5) CMSC-Camp (Mentors' Camp).

Yan Ling is an associate professor at George Mason University. She received her Ph.D. from the University of Connecticut. Her primary research focuses on top management issues as they pertain to small, privately-held firms including family businesses and new ventures. She is interested in how the top-level management of small, privately-held firms may be different from that of large, publicly-held organizations. Her research has been published in journals such as the Academy of Management Journal, Journal of Applied Psychology, Journal of Management, Journal of International Business Studies, Journal of Management Studies, Journal of Business Research, and the Journal of Organizational Behaviors, among others.

Jianhong Chen is an assistant professor in the Peter T. Paul College of Business and Economics at the University of New Hampshire. She received her Ph.D. in strategic management at Drexel University. Her research interests include CEO and top management team temporal orientation, top management team personality composition, and competitive dynamics.
